To: Members of the University Community
From: Gwen Cash-James, Associate Vice Provost, Academic Affairs
Date: February 28, 2025
Re: 2025 Trustees' Medal Award

The Medals and Awards Committee is seeking nominations for the 2025 Trustees' Medal. The Trustees' Medal, the university's highest form of recognition for faculty achievement, consists of a silver medallion and $1,500. The award will be presented during commencement on June 13 and 14, 2025. The deadline for nominations is Thursday, April 10, 2025.

These are the recipients of the award for the past six years:

Dr. Stuart Steiner—2024	Dr. Kerry Brooks—2021
Ms. Margo Hill, JD—2023	Dr. Jeffrey Stafford and Dr. Elizabeth Tipton—2020
Dr. Camille McNeely—2022	Dr. Jacqueline Coomes—2019

The Trustees' Medal is given to recognize the outstanding accomplishments of Eastern Washington University faculty in one or more of the following areas:

- Teaching excellence
- Significant contributions to their profession in the areas of research and scholarship or creative work
- Substantial contributions to the development of academic learning processes, programs and curriculum, especially those directly related to the EWU mission or major institutional initiatives

*NEW nomination process!

- A nomination is the only requirement.
- Support for the nomination is encouraged but is optional.
- Support may be submitted separately by individuals OR by the nominator (or the nominator's designee).
- No limit on the number or length of support documents.
 - Support may be a paragraph or several pages.
- The nominator is notified whenever support is submitted.

Previous nominations are kept on file and considered for three years. For previous submissions, nominators are encouraged to send a new letter of nomination. Updated supporting information is also encouraged.

On behalf of the members of the committee, I urge you to give careful consideration to this request for nominations.

Dr. Gwen Cash-James, Convener, University Medals & Awards Committee
