"Alex Sheen brings a lot to his program. As a member of the Panhellenic Community, I learned the importance of a promise, the meaning of keeping a promise, and how far a promise can go in life. Alex reminds all of us why we need to hold promises important and how beneficial that can be in our personal lives with family and friends and even in our work lives."
 – Kennedy Bailey, Alpha Phi, outgoing Panhellenic President

"We made a recycling program where we got customers to start recycling around Cheney. Every other week we would go around and pick up their recycling and take it to the recycling center."
 The funds from recycling went to the Spokane HOPE school
 -Jacob Nolan, Alpha Tau Omega

The Panhellenic community held another successful formal recruitment at the beginning of Winter quarter, bringing in 110 women to the 4 NPC chapters. During winter quarter, all 22 chapters brought a total of 229 new members.

Winter 2018 Highlights:

- Representatives from 82 student organizations attended Winter Club & Org Meetings. Presentation topics for these meetings included a presentation from career services about marketing a student leadership experience, club policy and procedure, and a presentation about the Peace Corps and fundraising opportunities with the Seahawks hosted by Career Services.
- 59 clubs and organizations participated in the Winter C&O Fair held in the JFK Library over the course of two days, February 7th and 8th. An estimated 300 students attended over the course of the two-day event. The event is sponsored by SAIL & ACEWII

Eagle Entertainment & Eagle Sound Productions

Winter 2018 Highlights:

- Eagle Entertainment hosted its annual Coffee House Series through winter quarter, holding 2 spoken word and 1 acoustic musical performance in addition to an open mic night at The Roost on campus. 237 students attended these events.
- 52 students from EWU-Spokane attended Eagle Entertainment's Night Tubing event at Mt. Spokane. This is the second year that EE has done this event and it continues to grow in popularity.
- Eagle Entertainment brought comedian Preacher Lawson to campus on January 31. The America's Got Talent alum entertained a packed house of 540 students in Showalter Auditorium and stayed after to talk and take pictures with fans.
- On February 23, 740 students, staff, and community members attended EWU's annual drag show hosted by Eagle Entertainment & Eagle Sound Productions. The event featured local/regional performers and raised $5,480 for Spokane's Odyssey Youth Movement.
